Chloe's Big Question

Who made all of this?

Celebrating the wonder,
love, and care in
this beautiful world

Who made all of this?

The next day, Chloe and her best friend Daisy began their quest to discover who created everything on Earth.

Daisy suggested they visit the wise owls near the lake.

Can you help me in answering the question: Who created everything on Earth? "A wise and loving creator. And He gave the world a way to grow, so it could keep surprising you."

The wise owls said to go visit our friend Mr. Brown to ask his opinion on the subject.

Mr. Brown was so happy to see Chloe. "The wise owls said you were coming." My answer to your question is that a Heavenly Father made all this beauty. And he made it in a way that keeps growing, so there's always more to see.

Mr. Bear said you should visit the ancient oak tree on your way home; it holds many secrets, and he has witnessed everything.

My roots have held this soil for many, many years, and all that time I have known that a creator made this world, and it has been growing ever since. I hope that helps you with your question.

Almost home, Sister Fox took a moment to say hello and shared that the owl had mentioned your quest for the answer to who created this marvelous wonderland we inhabit. I believe it was a Heavenly Father who fashioned it, and perhaps He also allows the world to continue shaping itself.

On their journey home, Daisy and Chloe encountered their beloved friend, Sage the wolf. “I’ve been tracking you both, and I believe I have the answer to your question,” Sage said. “A Creator made the earth, and it is indeed good.”

Finally home, Chloe thanked Daisy for her help. "I never asked you, who do you think made all this beauty?" A loving creator made the earth and gave us room to run, to grow, and to live.

Momma, I've been searching for who made this place called Earth. I want to thank Him for all the beauty I see every day.
“Our Heavenly Father made the Earth, and He made you too.”

Let us make a list of things you can do to show your love and gratitude for all he has done for the Earth and us.

How Kids Can Help The Earth

1. Pick up litter
2. Recycle paper, cans & plastic
3. Save water & energy
4. Plant trees & flowers
5. Feed the birds
6. Reduce, Reuse, Recycle
7. Don't waste food
8. Be kind to animals
9. Use less plastic
10. Spend time in nature

What Does "Thank You" Mean?

"Thank you" is a way to show gratitude and appreciation for something someone did or gave you.

What Happens in Your Brain When You Say "Thank You"?

Releases Dopamine

The "feel-good" chemical → creates happiness and pleasure.

Boosts Oxytocin

The "bonding hormone" → increases feelings of connection and trust.

Activates Prefrontal Cortex

Helps with better self-control and positive decision-making.

Reduces Stress

Lowers cortisol (stress hormone) → brings calm and relaxation.

Strengthens Neural Pathways

Rewires the brain to focus more on positivity, kindness, and empathy.

Saying "thank you" not only makes others feel good— it makes YOUR brain happier, healthier, and more connected!

HELPING THE EARTH

Why I Wrote This Book

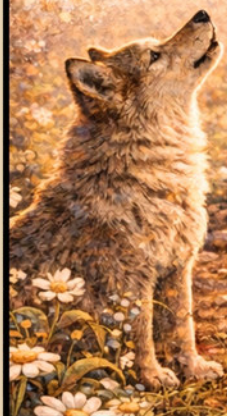

I wrote this book to help answer one of the most beautiful and important questions children often ask:

“Who made everything we see?”

As I listened to curious young minds wonder about the sky, the animals, the trees, and the world around them, I felt inspired to create a story that explores that question in a gentle and meaningful way.

Through Chloe’s journey, I wanted to show not only where we can find answers, but also how those answers can fill our hearts with gratitude, love, and a desire to care for the earth and one another.
