Let's Sing, 'Yes, We Can!'

We'll say, "Yes! Yes! Yes we can!"

Yes, we can... we really can.

Yes, we can, we really can!

With a "Yes" and a "Yes," there is nothing we can't do.

We will try and we will laugh and learn all the way through!

We'll say, "Yes! Yes! Yes we can!"

Yes, we can... we really can.

We'll say, "Yes! Yes! Yes we can!"

Yes, we can because we're the YES WE CAN crew!

We'll say, "Yes! Yes! Yes we can!"

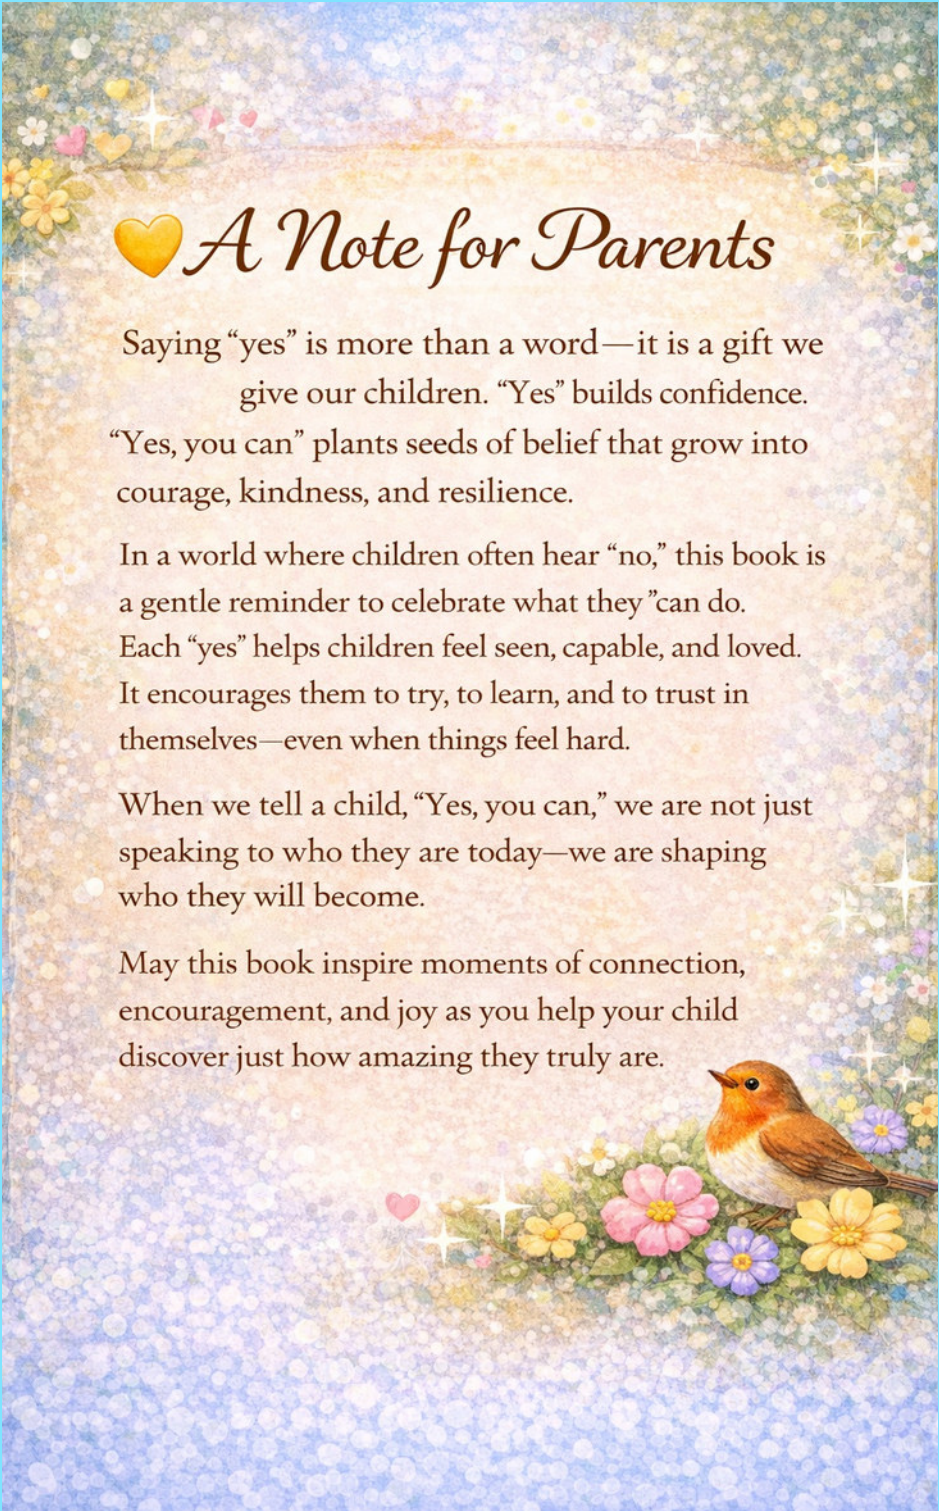

Yes, we can... we really can.

Yes, we can because we're the YES WE CAN crew!

YES

This book was written for all children, young and old, because every person—no matter their age, race, or circumstance—needs to know they have the power to do something wonderful.

A Note for Parents

Saying “yes” is more than a word—it is a gift we give our children. “Yes” builds confidence. “Yes, you can” plants seeds of belief that grow into courage, kindness, and resilience.

In a world where children often hear “no,” this book is a gentle reminder to celebrate what they “can” do. Each “yes” helps children feel seen, capable, and loved. It encourages them to try, to learn, and to trust in themselves—even when things feel hard.

When we tell a child, “Yes, you can,” we are not just speaking to who they are today—we are shaping who they will become.

May this book inspire moments of connection, encouragement, and joy as you help your child discover just how amazing they truly are.
